Strict geometrical silhouette combined with light forms, a mixture of contrasting fabrics both in color and structure, designer's prints and appliques – are the main features of the collection FW 16/17 by LEORGOFMAN.

Variety of colors used in this collection supports the idea of tropical climate; mainly they are beige, khaki, gold, black and grey.

“As a starting point/benchmark for this collection I took basic styles – safari and military. That allows my customers to feel as if they are starring in the Indiana Jones movie: bold and decisive meanwhile being extremely feminine”, - shares his vision the designer of the brand Leor Gofman.

Moreover the topic of sport is not left unnoticed in this brand new season. LEORGOFMAN has introduced trendy jackets and parkas for usual rainy weather.

The collection is accompanied by original accessorizes, the sketches for which were made by the designer.
